

JNZ BOARD OF DIRECTORS – INDEPENDENT BOARD MEMBER

Position Description

Judo New Zealand is the organisation responsible for the management and promotion of judo in New Zealand from the grassroots level through to high level international competition. As both a martial art and an Olympic sport judo appeals to a diverse range of people of any age, gender or background.

Judo New Zealand is about to embark on a major strategic review looking to transform our organisation and position ourselves for the future.

As part of this positioning we are looking to strengthen our board and gain more diversity through adding appointed directors.

Our Goals

- Healthy Clubs – delivering a positive and safe judo experience for our members
- More members – actively participating in judo activities
- Increased achievement and satisfaction
- Higher technical standards
- Higher public profile
- Healthy organisation – an appropriately governed and financially secure organisation

The Board comprises seven directors; an elected President, four other elected Directors and two appointed directors. A Board Appointments Panel, comprising the elected Directors, is convening this appointment process.

Positions

The Panel is seeking applicants for two Appointed Director vacancies both of which are new positions. One position will be for two years the other position will be for one year (with the possibility of extending for a further two years).

Ideal Applicant.

At least one of the Director's selected through the process must be a women in order to meet Sport New Zealand's Board diversity requirements.

The desirable skill sets and experience the Panel is looking for include:
